

2012 International Week at DTU

On December 4th, the opening ceremony of the 2012 International Week, entitled “You and The World”, was held by the DTU Enrollment Center. The event highlighted DTU’s overseas study programs and the preparation required prior to studying abroad. Representatives from the DTU Board of Provosts, the The He Moi Study Consultancy, IIG Vietnam, the ELI Language Center, Sacombank and the Vietin bank attended.

DTU Provosts and representatives inaugurate the 2012 DTU International Week

The 2012 DTU International Week was inaugurated by Dr. Vo Thanh Hai, DTU Vice-Provost and other representatives. Taking place from December 4th to 6th, the event included musical performances, information on taking IELTS and TOEFL courses and exams, the visa application process, interviewing, writing English CVs, means of financial support from local banks and so on. Mr. Andy Braden, Coordinator of the Auston-Singapore Institute, DTU’s partner in the 3+1 program, talked to students about the study environment and extra-curricular activities in Singapore.

DTU collaborates with universities worldwide to offer advanced academic programs. Partners include Carnegie Mellon (CMU), Penn State (PSU), California Fullerton (CSU). Three study-aboard programs are offered in conjunction with Appalachian State University, with a 2+2, with Lorain Community College in Ohio, with a 1+1+2 and with the Auston Institute in Singapore, with a 3+1. Graduates are granted degrees by the foreign universities.

“I am attending the 1+1+2 program at DTU. The 2012 International Week is a good chance for us to get more information before our studies in America in next year. I hope the consultants will increase our confidence about studying abroad”, said Ms. Tran Hoang Anh Thu.

(Board of Website Editors)

